3. [] Met with Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, who said that she was not free to discuss any plans for a trip by Senator Jackson, and that all that was wanted was a "staff briefing" on the general subject of Chinese foreign policy. She said they were particularly interested in Chinese policy in the Middle East--especially including Iran, India and Pakistan, in Europe, including Eastern Europe; and the Sino/Soviet relations, particularly regarding respective Chinese and Soviet policies in the above-mentioned areas. She said that they would like the briefing early next week. 25X1

4. [] Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, called this morning to say he had heard the news reports about a statement made by Madame Indira Gandhi regarding CIA activities in India. He said he would probably get some questions on this and asked if we could give him something on it. I told him I would look into it and we would be back in touch with him. 25X1

5. [] David Martin, on the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called. [] 25X1

Martin then referred to the article in the 18 September 1972 issue of Newsweek on "The Terrorist International" and said he was interested in any information which the Agency might have on the involvement of North Vietnam and North Korea in the terrorist movement. I said I would look into this and let him know. [] 25X1
